

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal.

VOLUME XIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JULY 8, 1884.

NEW SERIES.—NUMBER 265.

Semi-Weekly Interior Journal

W. P. WALTON.

Published Tuesdays and Fridays,

$2.00 PER ANNUM

When paid strictly in advance. If we have to wait any time, $2.50 will be charged.

To those dearly beloved journalistic brethren of The Times who see the specter of democratic defeat lurking behind Mr. Bayard's Dover speech, we commend the following utterances of Gen. John A. Logan, delivered in the Congress of the United States, Feb. 5, 1861:

"No man, sir, who is versed in the political history of this country, having a regard for truth, will for a moment contend that there is any other cause for the difficulties under which we labor than the miserable agitation of the slavery question. We are told, however, that the act of secession being unconstitutional, it is the duty of the Federal Government to call into requisition the army, the navy and the military of the non-seceding States, and with them invade the revolting States, and enforce the laws. If this method be resorted to on the part of the Government, with a view of coercing States, it will be on our part an act of war, and we will be forced in such a conflict to recognize and observe all the laws of war. Sir, are our hearts sufficiently steeled against our erring brethren to witness all the horrible scenes of such an unnatural strife? For one, sir, my heart sickens at the very thought. They are not our enemies, with whom we should be willing to measure swords, but a part of our people. They are our kinsmen, and should be dealt with kindly. Their return from their wanderings may be looked for at some future day, if our action shall be tempered with forbearance and moderation; but if you let the dogs of war, never never! Can it be possible that any of the friends of Mr. Lincoln will attempt a policy that will bring upon this country all the disasters of civil war when he himself was so conscientious about the spilling of blood that he opposed his own Government when engaged in war with Mexico, an enemy, and on foreign soil? Sir, this non-coercion war policy of gentlemen is not a prayer nor a practical remedy."

A Hundred Years Ago.

A member of Congress in a recent speech made the following citation from one of the debates in the Federal Convention of 1787:

"Though we may set out in the beginning with moderate salaries, we shall find that such will not be of long continuance. Reason will never be wanting for proposed augmentations. The more the people are discomfited with the oppression of taxes, the greater need the prince has of money to distribute among his partisans and troops that are to suppress all resistance and enable him to plunder at pleasure. There is scarce a king in a hundred who would not if he could follow the example of Pharaoh—get first all the people's money, then all their lands, and then make them and their children servants forever. It will be said that we do not propose to establish kings. I know it, but there is an inclination in mankind to kingly government. It sometimes relieves them from aristocratic domination. They had rather have one tyrant than five hundred. It gives more of the equality among citizens, and that they like. I am apprehensive, therefore, perhaps too apprehensive, that the Government of these States may in future times end in a monarchy. But this catastrophe, I think, may be long delayed, if in our proposed system we do not give the seeds of contention, faction and tumult by making our poster of honor places of profit."

The author of these remarks was no less a personage than Benjamin Franklin.

There was a time not long ago, when the elegant belle slept with gossamer hands in old gloves, and by day kept them carefully hidden from the sun, as a fashion writer puts it, "like mushrooms growing white in a cellar, so that they might look and feel as though they had never come in contact with anything rougher than satin." It is wholly different now. Athletic sports are in high approval. The daughter of wealth grasps oars, tennis bats, bridle reins, and tricycle handle bars, all without gloves; and she is proud of the callous palms which ensue, and the red rosininess of the knuckles that used to be the tone of the lily. Her liking for outdoor exercise has not yet taken her into the base ball field where her fingers might get permanently disfigured by breakage, and so the hands are not becoming distorted, though they will never again be quite as soft and small as they were.

A Vassar girl writes home: "I haven't seen a man in a month of Sundays. We were out taking a 'constitutional' Saturday, and came across a scarecrow in a cornfield. All the girls ran for it at once, and I only managed to secure a pair of the skirts of his coat. Still, it was something."

"I have allus noticed," observed Anni Tabitha, "that the boy who lets his mother bring the kindlin' wood and build the kitchen fire is the mourner that bellers the loudest at her funeral." And then she added thoughtfully: "Mebbe as not it is because he misses her the most."

BRIGHT, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The Daniel Boone Club had their annual encampment and fish fry at the Cool Spring on Mr. Tim Engleman's farm on the 3d and 4th.

—Dr. G. A. Taylor adds to his other accomplishments that of auctioneering. His disposal of residue of the supper would have done honor to Tom English in his best days.

—Miss Mary Kay's select school closed Thursday with recitations and awarding of prizes. Miss Lula Owsley and Master Owsley Dunn reciting particularly well. Miss Kay leaves to visit friends near McKinney until September when her school will open again.

—Miss Sallie Yeager and Miss Mattie Harlan have returned from a visit to Stanford. Misses Annie and Bettie Harrie are visiting their sister, Mrs. G. P. Bright. Misses Rhoda and Katie Hall, Miss Susie Buchanan, Ellen Weasen and Mr. Robt. Hall returned home Sunday after a few days' visit to Miss Sallie Yeager. Mr. Will B. Oldham, of the L. N. & C. railway will spend the summer with Capt. Tim Engleman. Those accomplished duels, Messrs. Joe F. Waters and Grover Curran, of Stanford, paid a flying visit Sunday to Providence. They are looking as hail as usual.

—The supper given by the ladies of the Sunday school at Bright's School House on the night of the 4th proved quite an enjoyable affair under the efficient management of Mrs. S. E. Owsley, Mrs. Sam Spoonsmore, Mrs. Jennie Bright and Misses Lou Bright, who with their corps of sweet girl waiters, as follows, Misses Blackberry, Schneidman, Smith, Walter, Engleman, Gentry, White, Owsley, Dunn, Swope, and Robinson, saw that every one was bountifully supplied. The Valley Cornet Band was present discoursing some of their sweetest music, and as the harvest moon shone at its brightest "youthful fancy lightly turned to thoughts of love." The success of the supper was most gratifying, realizing some fifty dollars.

The Boy on the Bag

There are few sights more suggestive of hopeful patience than that of a boy sitting on a bag of wheat that has fallen from his horse. He starts to mill joyously. The great event in the life of a young country boy is to be entrusted with a milling expedition. He sleeps very little the night before the journey, an active is his mind concerning the prospective trip. His father helps him on the horse and he sits on the bag as proud of position as a king is of his throne. Every object along the lonely road interests him. He plucks the blooms from the dogwood and almost falls off when the horse reaches around to bite himself. He rides into the creek to let the horse drink and spits at the minnows that swim around. After he goes up the bank on the opposite side of the stream, and pursues his course along the road he notices with alarm that the bag is slipping to one side. He sits still further over to make the bag balance, but yet he is not satisfied for it keeps on sliding to one side and at last falls off. He can not restrain his tears, and though he knows that he can not lift one end, yet he tugs at the bag. The old horse snorts, nibbles the grass and lashes the boy across the eye with his tail. "Whoa, you old fool!" and the disconsolate little fellow weeps afresh. He can not leave the bag, fearful that some one will steal it. He must wait the tardy coming of a passer-by. He hears the sound of hoofs and he listens intently, while the swelling buds of his hope burst into full bloom. He is doomed to disappointment, for the horse has no rider. Thunder rumbles in the distance and he will get wet. At last he sees an old negro coming along. His heart beats high with hope. The old negro steps aside and takes a by-path. The boy shouts. The old negro does not hear him. Another hour, that seems an age draws itself along. He hears a wagon. He is almost wild with joy. The driver, though a surly fellow, lifts the bag up, and the boy, happy and thankful, is rescued just at a time when he does not think that he could stand it a moment longer. —[Arkansas Traveler.]

One of the most brainless of unaccountable customs is that of opening political conventions with prayer. If there is any place from which sanctified emotions are utterly excluded, and in which his Satanic majesty assumes visible shape, it is at political gatherings. The Lord has very little to do with conventions and the less his anointed servants familiarize themselves with them, even in official robes, the higher is their esteem among the masses. —[Glasgow Times.]

Positive Cure for Piles.

To the people of this county we would say that we have been given the agency of Dr. Marchal's Italian Pile Ointment—emphatically guaranteed to cure or money refunded—Internal, External, Internal, Bleeding or Itching Piles. Price 50 cents a box. No cure, no pay. Penny & McAlister, Druggists.

Daughters, Wives and Mothers.

We emphatically guarantee Dr. Marchal's Cathartic, a female remedy, to cure Femina Diseases, such as Ovarian troubles, inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and displacement or bearing down feeling, Irregularities, Barrenness, Change of Life, Leucorrhoea, besides many weaknesses springing from the above, like Headache, Bloating, Spinal Weakness, sleeplessness, Nervous debility, Palpitation of the Heart, &c. For sale by druggists. Prices $1 and $1.50 per bottle. Send to Dr. Marchal, Union, N. Y., for pamphlet, free. For sale by Penny & McAlister, Druggists.

Man Shot; K. C. Extension &c.

(Special to the Interior Journal.)

LIVINGTONSTON, July 7th.—About 2 o'clock yesterday evening a difficulty occurred between John McDaniel and Elhannon Phillpot. It seems that Phillpot was intoxicated to some extent and abused McDaniel unmercifully and at the same time drew a large knife and attempted to cut McDaniel but outside parties interfered, when he made the second attempt to cut him. While in this attempt McDaniel drew a 38 calibre derringer pistol and fired the ball taking effect in his left jaw bone, breaking it to pieces, then ranging downward and lodging in his neck, inflicting a very serious and probably a fatal wound. McDaniel is section foreman for the L. N. & C. railroad company at this place and is a very sober and highly respected citizen and no doubt was forced to commit the act in self defense. Phillpot is an ex-brakeman on the L. N. & C. and is considered a pretty rough fellow generally. He had been confined in the Stanford jail until only a few days previous to this difficulty for obtaining goods of Mr. Isaac Hamilton, of Richmond Junction, under false pretences and has been in several other similar difficulties. McDaniel has not been arrested.

—The Kentucky Central ran their first engine over the double track from Roundstone to Livingston Saturday evening. They are now laying the tracks in the yard preparatory to commence running regular trains, which will be but a few days, if the weather continues favorable. The force at Rockcastle Quarry has been increased from 100 to 200 men in the last two weeks. The Livingston Coal Co. are preparing to increase their capacity of cars this fall. We have three saw-mills now in operation and all seem to be doing a good business. Business seems to be on the incline. A greater increase is anticipated as soon as the K. C. gets to making connection.

—We are to have a temperance lecture Wednesday night at the Livingston church by Mrs. Lula Nield, of East Bernstadt, and we will no doubt be handsomely entertained. The young men of this place will attend and be greatly benefited.

—Mrs. Clara Singleton, of Crab Orchard, is visiting Mrs. C. Mullins at this place. Mrs. W. S. Love has been very sick for the past week, but we are glad to say she is improving.

—Mary Ross died Saturday night with flux.

An enterprising Yankee has applied for letters patent for the manufacture of plumes. He proposes to make his plumes from woody fibre and other stuffy materials and to be able to produce a plume 20 inches in length that can be held for fifty cents. This is highly important if true. In the campaign now opening every Elaine man will want a plume, the fluffier the better. A (tattooed) plume would be a neat and appropriate device to wear outside the hat. Where a brick or other solid chunk of ballast in worn inside, the plumes might have a tendency to turn the wrong way, but it would be kept steady on the head. Black Jack will also want some distinguishing badge or boomsladde. This Yankee manufacturer might fix up a cheap and serviceable tomahawk or a few scalp to go with the plume. If misfortune overtakes the republican ticket the plumes would serve to ornament a party hearse. —[New York Morning Journal.]

An old tract says: "The jury of twelve was adopted because the prophets were twelve, the apostles numbered twelve, there were twelve Jewish judges, twelve pillars of the temple, twelve patriarchs, twelve tribes of Israel, twelve stones in Aaron's breast plate, twelve gates of Jerusalem, twelve months in the year and twelve signs in the zodiac. When juries were first established, the judge took the jurors about with him in a cart until they agreed. If they didn't agree, they were lined and imprisoned."

Among the increases of pensions recently granted by Congress is one in the case of Sally, widow of Mallory, who is henceforth to receive $300 a year. Inasmuch as the old lady is now over 90 years of age, Congress could not grudge her the desired increase; but the bill conferring it, in describing Mallory as "late a soldier in the Revolutionary war," doubtless employs the word late in a relative sense—as if that struggle were compared, for instance, with King Philip's war, or the War of the Roses.

"We have," says the Brooklyn Engle, "about four hundred and fifty alleged colleges and universities, more than all the remainder of the world put together. But most of these are little better than high schools, and some are not so good. Fifty millions of dollars are yearly given in support of these institutions, and yet there is reason to believe that there is not a seat of learning in the country where an investigator in pure science may find at the same time a well-stocked laboratory and a ready purse at his disposal."

An Irishman, who seemed to be in great distress, was asked the cause of his trouble.

"Me son is killt," he replied.

"And misfortune."

"Ah, yes, an' it's wurn on me son thin it is on me self. Gint to think, he was lyin' on the railroad and track drunk asleep. The train come along an' killed him before he knew he was dead. An', misther, it is bad to be slipped upon in that way." —[Ark. Traveler.]

Mr. Dana's Little Mint.

I learn that Mr. Dana's income from his paper is not only princely, but that it is exceeded only by that of Mr. Bennett. When Mr. Dana took hold of the Sun he made a contract with the trustees to edit the paper at a salary of $10,000 a year. He had then some 20 shares in the paper. Said he: "Now if the profits of the paper are large, I think I ought to have an interest in them outside of my salary, and I propose that all dividends above 25 per cent. shall be divided, and that I have half." The stockholders to whom a dividend of 25 per cent. seemed not only very large, but very improbable, said: "Why, of course if we declare any dividend over 25 per cent. you shall have one half." "Will you make a contract to that effect for ten years?" said Mr. Dana. The stockholders agreed and the contracts were made.

Within two years the paper paid over 50 per cent. and for a number of years has not paid less than 30. The ten-year contract expired a year or two ago and it was renewed with this change, that Mr. Dana gets one-half of all the dividends over 40 per cent. I hear, on the best authority, that Mr. Dana's share last year, including his salary, was $207,000.

ONLY A NEWSPAPER.—The city editor of a metropolitan journal was off duty the other night and attended a fashionable party. Struck by his erudition, a young lady remarked:

"Excuse me Mr. Blank but may I ask you a leading question?"

"Certainly, Miss Inquisitive," enviously replied.

"Are you a lawyer?"

"Oh, no; I'm a newspaper man," said he with pardonable pride.

"Is it possible?" she exclaimed. "Which particular paper do you sell most of?"

He immediately changed the subject to one more suitable to her mental calibre by asking her opinion of poodles. —[New York Journal.]

The Courier Journal is honing for the scalp of the Judges of the Court of Appeals since their failure to construe the law to its favor. As the Courier Journal was enthusiastically bent on preventing Phil Thompson with a chromo for killing his man, its ideas of what constitutes law are possibly somewhat crude. At any rate its new-born law abidingness is a source of infinite balm to its dupes. —[Glasgow Times.]

One of the saddest sights of circus day was a woman driving a horse in a buggy, with one child on her knee, and another on the seat beside her and her dead drunk husband at her feet limp and lifeless as a butchered hog being hauled to the market. The pitiful face of that woman as she met the lappies on her way would hardly compensate for that hour. —[Tonia (Mich.) National.]

"Where in the world have you been?" demanded a wife of her husband. It's nearly 8 o'clock in the morning."

"I know (hic) it is, my dear. But I can not tell a lie. I've been working at (hic) office."

"Well, I can tell all," she replied, sharply, "the moment I hear it, and—"

Then the fur flew. —[New York Sun.]

Miss Mary A. Kelley, a spinster keeping a small dry goods store in Baltimore, failed in business and became melancholy. She filled a wash tub full of scalding water, then saturated her clothing with coal oil and sitting on the edge of the tub, set fire to herself. When overcome by the flames she fell into the hot water. Her body was literally cooked through when discovered.

Up to June 30, 1883 there have been 629,000,000 acres of public land disposed of under old laws. To fill land grants to railroads about 109,000,000 more acres are necessary, while about 80,000,000 are needed to fill private land claims. Exclusive of Alaska, the Government has 641,284,276 acres to dispose of, which is more than twenty-two times Pennsylvania's area.

The Brooklyn bridge has the largest span and is considered the largest bridge in the world. But the Tay bridge over Frith of Forth, in Scotland, to replace that which fell down under a railway passenger train, will have two spans, each of which is as long as the Brooklyn bridge. This will be the greatest bridge ever designed.

A poet sings of a "charming maid with eyes of liquid blue." If this "charming maid" could be persuaded to shed a few tears in the tub on wash days it would work a great saving in the matter of bluing. —[Madisonville Times.]

Dyspepsia in its worst form will yield to the use of Carter's Little Nerve Pills aided by Carter's Little Liver Pills. They not only relieve present distress, but strengthen the stomach and digestive apparatus.

What will cure the Whooping Cough? That is a question asked every day. We can answer that we have found the remedy in Papan's Cough Cure. It never fails and can be administered to infants without danger. It is perfectly harmless. For sale by McRoberts & Stagg.

Papan's Blood Cure cures all diseases originating in any impurity of the blood, as Fits, Epilepsy, Anemia, Sick Headache, and Female Weaknesses. For sale at McRoberts & Stagg's.

During the season for mosquitoes and other stinging insects, and of poisoned plants, if your skin is impure, a bite will swell and fester unless you apply Papan's Skin Cure. A single application will neutralize the poison. For sale by McRoberts & Stagg.

JUDGE M. J. DURHAM

as a Candidate for Congress in the 8th District subject to the will of the Democracy.

JAMES B. McCREARY

is a Candidate for Congress in the Eighth District, subject to the will of the Democracy.

BOOTH PRIVILEGES!

ON SATURDAY, JULY 12, '84.

The Booth and other privileges of the Hestonville Fair Association will be sold at auction at Hestonville, at 2 o'clock p. m.

WILL R. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

W. M. CONNER,

LIVE STOCK—

COMMISSION MERCHANT!

—UNION STOCK YARDS—

CINCINNATI, . . . OHIO.

OFFICE INTSHEEP FENS.

REFERENCES.—Merchants National Bank of Cincinnati, Traders National Bank of Covington, or any office of Boone county, Ky.

Cattle Salesman, E. HOUSE.

Hog Salesman, T. HUDDLESTON.

Sheep Salesman, W. M. CONNER.

LANCASTER ADVERTISEMENTS.

B. F. WALTER

SURGEON DENTIST.

LANCASTER, KY.

Office over Citizens National Bank. Office hours from 8 to 12 A. M. and from 1 to 5 P. M.

L. F. HURRLE.

HUBBLE & BURDETT,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

LANCASTER, KY.

Will practice in Garrard and adjoining counties and Court of Appeals. Office in the Robinson block, South Side Public Square. 184-17

ENTERPRISE

Grocery.

Lancaster, Kentucky,

GEO. D. BURDETT

& CO.,

HAVE

Lately been Making Extensive

Additions

—To Their Stock of—

Furniture

And now have the Best Stock in Central Kentucky. They have Parlor

and Bed Room Sets, Carpet,

Cane and Penitentiary

Chairs, Marble Top,

Centre Stand & Extension

Tables, Woven Wire, Cotton

Top and Hair Mattresses,

Folding Bed Lounges,

Beds & Cots, Wardrobes

and Sofas, and Everything Else

Kept in a First-class Furniture Store

Granulated Sugar Prices.

STATE COLLEGE OF KENTUCKY

Fifteen Professors and Instructors.

Agricultural and Mechanical, Scientific, Engineering, Classical, Normal

School and Commercial Course of Study.

—COUNTY APPOINTEES RECEIVED FREE OF TUITION.—

Fall term begins Sept. 10th, 1884. For Catalogue and other information

Address JAMES K. PATTERSON, Ph. D., Lexington, Kentucky.

CENTRAL UNIVERSITY,

COLLEGE OF PHILOSOPHY, LETTERS, AND SCIENCE, RICHMOND, KY.

Next Session will open Wednesday, September 24, 1884.

ADVANTAGES.—A FULL FACULTY of able and experienced instructors. Comprehensive course of study and thorough instruction. Completeness of buildings and apparatus.

Social Influence.—The community is distinguished for its refined culture and hospitality, and young men find business in the city.

Healthfulness of Location.—Richmond is at an elevation of more than 500 feet above the Ohio river, and free from all malarial influences.

Accessibility.—Richmond is the geographical centre of the State, in the heart of the Blue Grass region, and is within a few hours' ride by rail of Louisville, Cincinnati, Knoxville and Chattanooga.

Modest Expenses.—Board in the Astor Hotel, lighted by gas and heated by steam—an excellent, comfortable home—$10 per annum for everything except washing, and in the best families from $10 to $14 per week. Total necessary expenses for the term (from 1884 to 1885)

For full information and catalogue, apply to L. H. BLANTON, D. D., Chancellor.

HALE'S WELL.

Having leased this desirable resort and thoroughly renovated it, I am now prepared to accommodate the public at the following rates:—

Board and lodging, per week $ 7 00

Per day 1 00

Per meal 30

Cottage of 2 rooms and cook room, per week 10 00

Single room, per week 5 00

Board at the Hotel, per week 5 00

No two families can occupy the same cottage without first making a special contract. Special rates to clubs. No persons allowed to take water off in jugs unless he is or has been a boarder. Suitable and comfortable for horses. Accommodations furnished from the train at all times.

26-1-17 R. C. ENGLEMAN.

DANVILLE

PLANING MILL

COMPANY

Manufacturers of—

Doors, Sash, Blinds, Window

and Door Frames, Moldings, Scroll Saw

Work, Turning Lathe Work,

Flooring, Ceiling, Weath-

erboarding, Dressed Lumber

—And other—

Building Material

—Also Dealers in—

Farming Lumber!

Call on us or write for prices. We keep a large stock and will do our best to please you in price and quality of material.

DANVILLE PLANING MILL CO

Danville, Ky.

1831 THE CULTIVATOR 1884

COUNTRY GENTLEMAN!

THE BEST OF THE

AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES

The Country Gentleman is the leading journal of American Agriculture. It is a source of practical information, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions

of

Farm Crops and Processes,

Horticulture & Fruit-Growing,

Live Stock and Dairying;

while it includes all the departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology,

Bee-Keeping, Green House and Grapery. Veterinary Recipes, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary

Stanford, Ky., July 8, 1884

W. P. WALTON.

At noon to-day the assembled wisdom of the democratic party will be called to order at Chicago, when it will proceed to nominate the next President of the United States. It seems to be generally conceded that if New York can concentrate on a particular candidate and present him unanimously to the convention, he will receive the nomination, at least that is the way a majority of the delegates feel, especially those from the South. As it is not likely that harmony will exist in the delegation referred to, Cleveland being strongly opposed by many, it is hard to form any idea as to who the nominee will be. Butler is the only avowed candidate on the scene and his henchmen are making loud boasts that he will be nominated, but as foolish as the party sometimes acts it will hardly do a thing so suicidal. A good deal of strength has been manifested by the old Roman, of Ohio, Senator Thurman, but he is not likely to win the nomination. It will in all probability be either Cleveland, Bryant or McDonald, but which, God Almighty alone knows at this time. The platform will not contain the old phrase, "a tariff for revenue only," but will be explicit in its terms for a reduction of the war tariff.

THE New York Sun, which wants the tariff question ignored and the fight for the presidency made by the democrats on a cry of "Turn the rascals out," says: "If Mr. Tilden were the candidate, no platform would be necessary; but with any other man who may be nominated, there must not only be a platform, but its nature is almost as important and it may be quite as decisive as the quality of the candidate himself. No glittering generalities of equivocal meaning like the resolutions of the recent democratic convention of Kentucky, or those of the convention of Indiana held last week, will avail anything. If the platform is British even by implication, it will be fatal. It must be distinctly and plainly American, or Blaine wins. The phraseology, the precise form of words, is of little importance; but the principle of so adjusting duties on imports as to put the American laborer and producer fully in a situation to compete with the foreign laborer and producer must be clearly and indisputably set forth, or the game is up at the beginning and playing it out will only be a matter of ceremony." The Sun represents one extreme and the Courier Journal the other. The tariff question can not be ignored and if the democrats fail to declare their purpose of reducing it to a revenue basis, they deserve to be beaten.

JOHN A. LOGAN, who now claims to love so dearly the colored man and brother, was formerly his bitter enemy. In fact he so greatly hated the very looks of a negro that he did not want him even to place his foot on the sacred soil of Illinois, and while in the Legislature of that State before the war he originated and passed a bill making it a high misdemeanor, punishable by sale at public auction, for any negro or mulatto, bond or free, to come into the State and remain ten days with the evident intent of residing in same. This is the kind of man the negroes are asked to support, but if they are possessed of an iota of sense they will refuse to do so.

A GREAT change has come over the spirit of the dream of Mr. Waterson. Four years ago his paper among other mean things about him declared that Thomas A. Hendricks was a "fool and a conspirator." Sunday Mr. Waterson telegraphed as follows from Chicago: "The Indiana democrats have come to four national conventions and urged that a candidate be taken from their State. For some reason that I could never understand this has never been done. Although a better man, a more honest or able man than Thomas A. Hendricks does not reside in America, they have thrown him aside four times and have nominated an Eastern man, only to suffer defeat at the polls."

THE Glasgow Times is the latest victim of the "Ulster county Gazette," of the date of 1880," which it describes at length. We thought every newspaper office in the United States had been fully supplied with copies of this old fraud before this. Once at least has three or four and every once in a while a man comes in with one wrapped up carefully for us to examine and mention. The original edition of the paper was perhaps less than a thousand and a genuine copy of it is exceedingly rare, but a fac simile of it both in printing and the mustiness of its looks was gotten up and sold at the Philadelphia Centennial at 25c a copy and about a million of people bit readily at the bait.

THE Senate sustained Arthur in his veto of the Fitz John Porter bill and that much-minused officer will have to wait for vindication under a democratic administration. Grant and a number of other Generals, who have examined into the merits of the case, agreed that the charges against Porter were groundless and that he ought to be restored to his position in the army, but because he happens to be a democrat Arthur and his party are too mean to afford him simple justice.

THEY seem to be fixing for another scrub race in the 4th district, which was formerly represented so ably by Proctor Knott. Already a number of men of mediocre ability have entered the ring and it is likely the scene of the last Elizabethtown convention will be repeated even on a larger scale.

DURING the convention at Chicago the Interior Journal will keep its patrons posted as events occur by bulletin and perhaps by extras. We hope to give the nominees and their pedigrees in full by next issue.

CONGRESS was in session all Saturday night and Sunday and Sunday night and the ball looked more like a bar-room with a lot of drunken loafers lying around than it did like the seat of law-making. During the time Reed, of Maine, and Sumner Cox got into a big war of words, but no blood was shed. The body passed into history yesterday at noon.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The Kentucky delegation has organized by the selection of Capt. Tom Sherley, chairman. Over 600 unarmed Kentuckians are here. The National Committee will present the name of Gov. Hubbard, of Texas, for temporary chairman of the convention. Cleveland badges are the most numerous, but he is being fought with great activity. There is no telling who will be nominated.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 7.—A mob of sixty armed and masked men, mounted on horseback, came from Todd county to this place last night, took Dick Henderson, colored, from the jail and lynched him. He was charged with cutting the throat of young Adams, a white boy, at Pincham, in Todd county, last April.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—In a difficulty at Hickman, Ky., Wm. Oakley was killed by W. E. Perry, Jr.

—Hopkinsville is the latest town to discard standard and adopt old Sol's time.

—A convict in the Ohio penitentiary cut off two of his fingers to keep from work.

—Seventeen car-loads of New York democracy went to Chicago to work for Cleveland.

—A storm at Rich Hill, Mo., demolished the Presbyterian church and several other buildings.

—Twelve men were killed and as many wounded in the bridge disaster near Cunningham, Mo.

—The Democratic Convention Hall at Chicago will have a force of 60 doorkeepers, 60 ushers and 30 pages.

—The Senate failed to pass the Fitz John Porter bill over the President's veto. The vote stood 27 to 27.

—Daniel Manning, chairman of the New York committee, claims that Cleveland will get 48 of New York's 72 votes.

—The Texas delegation is put down as voting as a unit for whatever candidate New York unanimously presents.

—The Western Union Telegraph Co., secured a big victory in the defeat of the Postal Telegraph Bill in the Senate Friday.

—One year of the three cent postage brought the government $43,000,000 and one year of two per cent nearly $41,000,000.

—THE Newark, O., Agricultural Words were burned Saturday. The loss is $350,000 and 300 men are thrown out of employment.

—A Lexington woman ate three pints of cherries and several cucumbers at one sitting and she next day laid over and died with the cholera morbus.

—Joe Blackburn is quoted as saying that Cleveland can not be nominated and that the fight lies between Bryant and McDonald, in favor of the former.

—Gen. Chalmers, ex-Confederate, now a loyal Republican, thinks he will be re-elected to Congress in Mississippi and predicts that Blaine will carry that State.

—Twenty-one Democrats, returning from a political meeting near Mobile, Ala., were fired into by negroes. One man was killed outright and six more severely injured.

—The River and Harbor Bill has at last passed both houses. It appropriates $13,909,200. The falls of the Ohio at Louisville gets $390,000 and the Kentucky river $250,000.

—A hurricane passed over Columbus, Ky., Saturday evening, doing great damage in the country, destroying growing crops, and several houses demolished and three persons killed in Columbus.

—George Oliver, who murdered William Allen, at Cincinnati, on November 2, 1883, has been sentenced to hang on the 7th of the same month, this year. This makes the fourth man under sentence of death in that city.

—The President has appointed John A. Kasson, of Iowa, Minister to Germany; Alphonse Taff, of Ohio, Minister to Russia; John M. Francis, of New York, Minister to Austria-Hungary; Lewis Richmond, of Rhode Island, Minister to Portugal.

—Arrangements have been perfected by Mr. Waterson and the Chicago Times Company, by which a Courier Journal page of the Times will be printed daily. The page will contain the views of the Courier-Journal correspondents upon the situation and editorials in favor of revenue reform.

—Haverhill, Mass., was the most serious loser by the Fourth of July year. Fire-crackers set ablaze some lumber in an extensive yard, and before the flames could be extinguished they had spread over half an acre of buildings, burning some valuable blocks and causing a loss of about $75,000. The Fourth, in the way it is celebrated, comes high, but we must have it.

—The first session of the Forty-eighth Congress adjourned yesterday. The session extended over seven months. In that time there have been introduced in the Senate 2,367 bills and 97 joint resolutions and in the House 7,507 bills and 281 resolutions; 68 Senate bills and 10 Senate resolutions have passed both Houses and become laws by executive approval and 62 House bills and 32 House resolutions have become laws in the same manner.

—The annual revision of postoffice shows that the total number of presidential offices in 2,323 and 72 were dropped from third to fourth class by the present revision. The aggregate salaries of 2,323 presidential postmasters July 1, 1884, amounted to $3,831,200 and the aggregate salaries of 2,195 presidential postmasters October 1883, was $3,707,600. The increase of postoffice since the October readjustment is 128. The salaries of 800 first-class postmasters October 1, 1883, was $255,600 and the present readjustment gives them $284,900.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mr. G. W. Spaulding and Miss Louisa Wilcher obtained license to marry on the 4th inst.

—Several new cases of flux are reported this, Monday, morning. Mr. Richard Foley is still very low with the same disease.

—Rue & Minor are preparing an extra string of horses for the coming fair, headed by the well known stallion, "Old Trailor."

—Wakefield & Farria bought Thursday of Seroggin, Hudson & Co., a pair of mare mules between 4 and 5 years old, 15 hands 4 inches high for $325.

—Smith & Anderson bought Saturday of various Boyle county farmers 10,000 bushels of wheat at 75 cents to be delivered within the next twenty days.

—Mr. Walker Fry has been nominated for Sheriff by the Boyle county republicans and will make the race against R. S. Satter, the democratic nominee.

—Boyle Lodge No. 385, Knights of Honor recognize as the head of the order the Supreme Grand Lodge with headquarters at St. Louis. They have no sympathy with the getters up of the Louisville mud-dle.

—Green Owens was tried by a jury Saturday and ordered to the Lunatic Asylum at Lexington. In a conversation with Green while the jury was considering his case, he assured your correspondent that one of his legs was dead and that he had been conjoined by a woman.

—De Taylor, of Hustonville, was here Monday regaling his friends with some account of a dance he attended in the "Yosemite Valley" on the 4th. The gentleman who called the figures must have been a particularly interesting character with his "Obedience to your partners. Don't forget your corners! Form a style!" &c.

—There is some sort of trouble between the Linley Wire Fence Company and the Combination Wire Fence Company both of which have been doing considerable work in this county. Mr. L. W. Linley represents the first and Mr. A. H. Norris the latter. Your correspondent has not talked with Mr. Linley, but Mr. Norris thinks when one company imagines the other is infringing on its patent that the courts should be promptly resorted to.

—Mr. Wm. Dugan, of the West End, has succeeded Mr. E. S. Lee as clerk in the Farmers National Bank, Mr. Lee having obtained a situation in a bank at Covington. Miss Maggie Rowland and Mr. J. C. Fleese, Miss Bertie Boyle and Mr. Andrew Whitley, Miss Mattie Thompson and Mr. Wm. Fible, Miss Jennie McAllister and Mr. George Metcalf, Miss Rowland, of St. Louis, and Mr. Mat Weisegar, Miss Laura Shackelford and Mr. W. W. Wiseman, Miss Sallie McRoberts and Mr. Geo. Evans, Miss Mattie Duke and Mr. Jas. W. G. Guest, Jr., made up a pleasant picnic party who spent the Fourth near Burdett's Mills on Dix river. Mrs. Wm. Crutcher, of Madison county, is visiting the family of her son, Elder S. W. Crutcher. Mrs. Fannie Talbott, of Sharpshurg, is visiting the family of her father Col. Thomas Barbee. Miss Kate Winston, who has been teaching school in Carlisle, is here spending vacation. Mrs. J. H. Thomas left Monday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. C. Lane at Elizabethtown. Mr. W. E. Halldeman, of Louisville passed through town Monday on his way to Crab Orchard. Mrs. Lizzie D. Newcomb of Natchez, Miss., is spending the summer with Mrs. D. S. Maxwell, this county. Mrs. Eugenia Dunlap Potts who has been visiting Mrs. R. R. Jones, left Saturday for Lancaster, at which place and at Lexington she will spend some time with friends before returning to her home in Brooklyn, New York. Gen. S. S. Fry who has been in Washington City for several weeks, came home Saturday. Father Thomas White of Campbellsville, is spending a few days with Rev. A. J. Brady, of St. Paul's church, before starting on a trip to Europe.

—Hustonville, Lincoln County.

—Saturday afternoon and night gave us the long-expected rain in rich abundance.

—The almost continuous blaze of lightning after the late storm presented a scene indescribably grand and surpassingly beautiful.

—Reports from Mt. Salem, some five miles southeast of us, indicate that a severe hail storm visited that region Saturday evening.

—Messrs. Ryan & Cooper, the new dry goods firm, have been very busy invoicing, preparatory to an active campaign. It is rumored that they will occupy Yowell's new building. This ought to be popular concern. The partners, besides being urbane and pleasant gentlemen, are both young, both handsome and only one of them married. Ladies note these threefold excellencies.

—President Jarman, the distinguished pioneer of the colored people's stock fair, claims with justice that had it not been for his peculiar and enlightened zeal and the success with which he demonstrated the practicality of such an enterprise, Lincoln would never have occupied the proud position he holds as a leading member among agricultural and stock-raising counties.

—The camp meeting at Junction City is the great attraction of the day. People are collecting from all directions and there is a prospect for a larger attendance. There is a probability, however, that the institution will not survive much longer. There was a time when strong reasons could be urged in favor of this mode of religious service. But in this day of multiplied and commodious church buildings and of regular state preaching, the necessity no longer exists. Furthermore that which was originally designed as a blessing to the people and to be judiciously managed by wise and pious officers has to a large extent fallen into worldly hands and is rapidly sinking to the level of a mere money making machine, manipulated by speculators, railroad corporations and other operators less reputable and more demoralizing still. Leading members of the very respectable denomination, which has mainly favored the camp meeting enterprise are beginning to see the true condition of things and are losing faith in the efficiency of this peculiar mode of evangelization. It is not likely therefore that the Church will foster this institution much longer.

—Had a pleasant visit to Waynesburg on Saturday. The appointment of the Congressional candidates called out the citizens from all the country round. A great improvement has been made in the order of this place in late years. Up till the time I left—3 or 4 years—there was no sign of disorder. A more quiet, sober, well behaved, popular assembly could not have been found within the limits of the State. Did not hear the candidates and am unable to give the features of the weird tournament, I trust, however, it was less tasteless than my journey hitherward.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson's address, in which she paid a beautiful tribute to an earnest, faithful and efficient man, Rev. W. P. Tyler, was peculiarly touching. Such praise coming from the hearts of the people is a prouder monument to the memory of the minister than the costliest shaft ever chiseled from the purest marble. My adopted children, the Valley Cornet Band, acquitted themselves most admirably and excited a feeling of paternal pride in the bosom of the writer.

—The picnic at Pleasant Point proved a very nice affair. The crowd was very large and exceedingly well behaved, the entertainment, both intellectual and physical, well got up and well received and the whole affair went off without a jar. It was a day of genuine, quiet enjoyment, strangely contrasting with the rule, boisterous and reckless mode of celebrating "the consecrated day" formerly in vogue in the same locality. [Here followed a detailed account similar to that in our local columns.] One passage in Mrs. Robinson

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mall train going North.....12 45 P. M.
 Express train going North.....1 00 P. M.
 Express train going South.....1 00 A. M.
 Mail train going South.....2 30 A. M.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 20 minutes faster.

LOCAL NOTICES.

BUY PAINTS OF PENNY & McALISTER.
 LUMINATING oils of all kinds at Penny & McAlister's.

BRAND new stock of every thing in the jewelry line at Penny & McAlister's.

NEW shades of ready mixed paints for spring trade at McRoberts & Stagg's.

WATCHES, Clocks and Jewelry repaired and warranted by Penny & McAlister.

PURE winter strained lard oil and all kinds of machinery oils at McRoberts & Stagg's.

The best Soda Water in the city at Penny & McAlister's; made with pure candy syrup and flavored with pure fruit juices.

PERSONAL.

Gov. James H. McCreary spent Sunday and yesterday with us.

Miss Georgia Lewis, of Boyle, is the guest of Miss Annie Alcorn.

Miss Eliza Hogan, of Bryantville, is visiting at Mr. Henry D. Baughman's.

Miss Sallie and Helen Thurmond are visiting in Lebanon and Hendersonville.

Miss Lida McCann, of Lexington, arrived on a visit to Miss Sabra Pennington, yesterday.

Miss Sallie McRoberts, of Danville, is visiting Miss Daisy Burnside at the Myers House.

Hon. Sterling Grimes, of Cuero, Texas, and Cashier Joe S. Grimes, of Elizabethtown, are on a visit to their parents.

Sam Whitte, son of Mr. J. T. Whitte, who is said to be a No. 1 book-keeper, is now filling that position for Bright & Curran.

Mr. Martin Dillon and wife, and Miss Ella Lukenbil, a pretty young lady from Louisville, are guests of Mrs. J. B. Higgins.

Mr. W. T. Logan, who has been attending the Commercial College, at Louisville, has accepted a lucrative position in that city. He is at present on a visit to his relatives and was here Saturday.

Mr. Chas. W. Metcalf, the stalwart editor of the Nicholasville Journal Courier, was over to see his brother Tom Sunday. He seems to be quite enough to maintain his resolution to apologize under no circumstances.

Mr. James R. Marrs, of the Danville Advocate, who has been 20 years in editorial harness and has the satisfaction of knowing that he has always gotten out one of the best newspapers in Kentucky, was here yesterday interviewing his old subscribers.

Pross H. P. Grider and J. H. Claggett, a couple of capable and accomplished teachers, were here Saturday on route to Barboursville, where they will take charge of Union College the next session. The community is to be congratuated on securing their services.

Mr. L. B. Givens, of this county, will leave today for Balice, British Honduras, Central America, where he goes with a view of entering business, should the present prove inviting. It takes nerve for a young man to strike out that far from home, but Mr. Givens is fully supplied with that admirable quality and will undoubtedly succeed in his new location.

LOCAL MATTERS.

FLY FANS at W. H. Higgins.

Free cream of all brands at the parlors on Lancaster street. S. S. Myers & Co.

The Harrodsburg Social Dancing Club will give a hop at Chenoweth Hall, next Tuesday evening, 15th.

B. K. Wharten's elegant new hearse has arrived. It is the handsomest vehicle of the kind ever brought to this section.

John Rowland, of Liberty, for being drunk and exposing his person, was let off with a fine of $5. He should have been made to labor on the streets a month or so.

A 4th of July excursionist on the C. & O. was fool enough to jump after his hat when it blew off near Morehead. The train was running at full speed and he not only did not get his hat, but broke it to neck he sides.

The August elections occur in a month. In this county a school commissioner, sheriff, all the constables and magistrates, where there are vacancies will be chosen. Only one magisterial vacancy exists and that in the Hustonville precinct, caused by the death of Squire Peyton.

MARRIED.—Mr. James Kinsella, of Cincinnati, and Miss Sallie S. Baker, of Millledgeville, spent the happiest 4th of July they ever experienced. They came to town and procuring license sent for Rev. H. C. Morrison; and were made husband and wife in time to start life together with the 100th year of American independence.

EVERYBODY who can spare the time and $12 should take the C. & O. excursion to Fort Monroe and Old Point Comfort on the 21st. It is one of the grandest trips for pleasure and profit that could be gotten up. The scenery along the Kanawha, New and Greenbrier rivers is unsurpassed no where, while along the route in Virginia there are hundreds of places made famous both in the Revolutionary and the Civil wars. From Richmond down the peninsula to the Chesapeake Bay, Jamestown, where the first colony ever landed in Virginia, Yorktown, Williamsburg and Hampton, are immediately on or near the road. Fort Monroe, the largest of the kind in the world, is alone worth the trip to see. Decide at once about going and see W. B. McRoberts about your ticket.

THE best two-for-five cigar at T. R. Walton's.

FOREIGN and domestic fruits of every variety at S. S. Myers & Co's.

EVERYBODY remember that our accounts are due July 1 and please don't forget it. Edmiston & Owsley.

GOLDEN PATENT FLOUR is giving splendid satisfaction. Use it if you want the best bread. Sold only by T. R. Walton.

IT is settling time now and I would be obliged to all indebted to me for clothing to call at once and pay up. H. C. Rupley.

BUY no "Bus tickets from the K. C. Junction to Stanford. Take a free ride to the St. Asaph or to any part of the city for ten cents. M. C. Portman.

A VERY heavy hail storm visited a portion of the county Saturday afternoon, especially the McKinney neighborhood, doing great damage to the corn. The stones in some cases were as large as a hen's egg.

DROPPED DEAD.—Thomas Mansfield, drummer for Bamberger, Bloom & Co., and well known here, dropped dead in Scottsville, Friday. His wife was a patient at the Pink Cottage Faith Cure for a while during his existence.

WHILE up the road the other day, Mr. J. T. Whitte, the clever representative of Wm. H. H. & Sons, sold in the Altamont Coal Co., in one order, 25,000 lbs. of groceries aggregating in value $1,800. It isn't every drummer that can take an order like that.

THE Lincoln County Telephone directors met yesterday and ordered a full statement of the business of the company to date be published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of the 14th. The managing directors and operators have had the free use of the line hitherto, but that order was rescinded and every body hereafter will pay or get no service.

THE glorious Fourth was a remarkably quiet day in town. The Banks and all the stores, with one or two exceptions, were closed, the clerks went picnicking and the proprietors lolled around like they were lost. Two or three drunken men were run in, but they were not boisterous and after sleeping their whisky off in jail, were allowed to depart after paying the usual fines.

ALL who went from here to the supper at Bright's School House were delighted with the kind treatment they received and the excellence, variety and abundance of the bill of fare. For the small sum of 25 cents they gave a man everything he wanted to eat and as much of it as he wanted, which would of course been a long business had not all the eatables been donated by the ladies of the neighborhood.

ANOTHER LINCOLN MAN.—Mr. J. H. Miller furnishes us with the following: Gen. Edjah Gates, democratic nominee for Treasurer of Missouri, was raised in this county on Dix river near Dunderberg's mill. In the identical house now occupied by Alex. Taylor. In the early days of the war he commanded a regiment in Gen. Sterling Price's army. After being transferred this side of the Mississippi river he commanded a brigade. He lost his left arm at the battle of Franklin, Tenn., under Hood, was captured and in this condition made his escape, and took the small-pox, but has enough of himself left morally and physically to make his adopted state a good citizen. He was Treasurer under the Governor preceding Crittenden and his bankers were inclined to play him hard, but he "unruffled" them not to do it. He will be readily remembered by many citizens of Lincoln. He left here about thirty years ago and is about fifty-six years old.

HIGHLAND.—The 4th of July picnic and Sunday school and temperance entertainment drew a tremendous crowd. At 10 o'clock Rev. J. M. Cook called for order and after a beautifully worded and appropriate prayer by Rev. H. C. Morrison, Dr. Thompson delivered an oration on "The day we celebrate." His remarks showed that he was well up in both ancient and modern history. After music by the Valley Cornet Band, Rev. W. R. Davidson addressed the audience on the subject of "Sunday schools." A good old-fashioned song, "The Kingdom is coming," was then sung by the scholars of the various schools in a manner quite refreshing. By special request of the committee Rev. H. C. Morrison made some appropriate remarks and the frequent manifestations of appreciation showed that what he said just fit the occasion and the crowd exactly. Mr. A. J. Rust, of Danville, in a half-hour's speech on "Temperance" hit the boys about right. Rev. J. M. Coleman, of McKinney, also made some interesting remarks on the same subject. Mrs. M. D. Robinson occupied the stand for about twenty-five minutes and in her remarks on the Sunday-school work showed that she was what might be termed the true Christian. Mrs. Wm. Boylan read an essay on "Temperance." The feature of the day was a speech made by a little six-year old boy, Jimmie C. Jackson, his subject being, "I must be a great man." He was called to the speaker's stand the second or third time and said what he had to say in a manner that would lay in the shade the average college boy. He is an adopted child of Dr. Jackson, from the Orphan's Home at Louisville, and is truly a wonder. Capt. Richards' Band played some splendid music at intervals during the day and was equal to a circus to the majority in attendance. Miss Florence Robinson and her mother won the lasting good wishes of the Band boys by their kind treatment and good attention about dinner time. In the language of Capt. Richards, "There's chickens in going to a picnic at Highland" and Stanford representatives will be on hand there on every similar occasion in the future.

THERE will be a picnic at Hale's Well next Saturday, to which everybody is invited.

Two thousand pounds well cured country hams for sale at 15 cents per pound. Bright & Curran.

Gov. McCreary has presented the Valley Cornet Band of Stanford with a $20 drum of which they are very proud.

For sale at a bargain, 2,500 2 bushel grain sacks, second-hand. Come quick before they are all sold. Bright & Curran.

Lost.—A pair of steel spectacles and case on Main street, Stanford, Monday. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at this office.

Deport agent Carpenter sold 77 tickets to the camp meeting at Junction City Sunday. The rate is one fare for the round trip for the present.

It is a fact worthy of mention that in the Baptist Sunday school at Danville Sunday morning was a little boy seven years old who had never before heard that there was a God.

SHERIFF MENEFEE supplied the county with sacks yesterday at a very cheap rate. He disposed of at auction under execution 7,500 belonging to the Lincoln Mills at 1 to 7 cents each, when they cost about 25c. A nearly new safe sold for $7.

YESTERDAY a lot of roughts got drunk on Capt. Harris' freight train at Livingston and when he put them off they fired into the caboose, but fortunately hurt nobody. The offense is a penitentiary one and the roughts deserve to go there.

COUNTY COURT.—Besides the usual routine of business, the county court yesterday appointed J. N. Menefee administrator of A. G. Spratt; admitted the will of H. W. Harris to probate and granted tavern license each to J. S. Pennebaker and W. L. McCarty, Kings Mountain.

Mrs. S. R. Hastings, who was so severely injured in the collision on the K. C. last week, died Saturday, shortly after her leg was amputated. She had never regained consciousness from the time of accident until death. A bride of only a few weeks and but 18 years of age, the tragedy is a peculiarly sad one.

REMOVED.—Mr. C. C. Colmishil, who has been running as mail messenger for a number of years, has gotten into some trouble about registered letters and has been removed from office. One or more such letters have been missed after being traced to his charge. It is also said that a few weeks ago the wife of a section boss found the envelope of a registered letter, which was thrown from Colmishil's car when he, the baggage and express messenger were the only persons on it. The amount contained in the missing letters was deducted from Mr. Colmishil's wages and no prosecution will follow, though he owes it to himself to demand an investigation. None of his friends believe him guilty of stealing.

THE C. G. R. A. N.—Capt. Spradlie, always an enthusiastic believer in the certainty of the building of the road to Nashville, was here Sunday feeling in high feather over the prospect. The following clipping from the American, which he gave us, certainly puts matters in a more promising light and we hope to hear the sound of the pick and hammer before many days. "A telegram was received last evening, from Mr. Herman Just, who is in New York as a representative of the citizens of Nashville, to center with Mr. Huntington relative to the Green River Road. Mr. Just stated that he had conferred with Mr. Huntington and had found capitalists in New York who would take the additional $100,000 of bonds, provided Nashville subscribed $400,000. It will be good news to the citizens of Nashville to hear that the Green River Road, in which they are so interested, is now an assured fact."

DEATHS.

GIVENS.—After a long illness of a kidney ailment, Mrs. Isabella Paxton, wife of Mr. Richard W. Givens, breathed her last on the evening of the 31, aged 35 years. For 50 of them she had been a faithful member of the Presbyterian church, whose light shone on all around her and won for her a reputation of earnest piety, mingled with the other good graces of the true Christian, that is seldom attained. Besides an aged husband, who is left to mourn her loss, three children, Jas. G. Givens, of Louisville, William P. Givens and Miss Nora Givens, of this county, survive her, and in their affliction the sympathy of the community is with them. The funeral discourse was preached at her late residence Saturday evening by Dr. Green, of Danville, and the remains interred in the family burying ground.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Presbyterian Sunday-school children gave $200.000 for benevolence last year.

—Rev. John A. Broadbent, of Louisville, was struck while preaching in New York, but is recovering.

—The Southern Methodists of Nicholasville will build a new church and have advertised for bids for its construction to close July 22.

—The circus now holding forth at Junction City under the name of Camp Meeting, is a bigger thing than Wallace's and much cheaper to attend. There was an immense crowd there Sunday and the most motley one that ever assembled, so the devil got in his work most encouragingly to his satanic majesty.

We call attention to advertisement in another column of the State College of Kentucky, located at Lexington. It has unequalled advantages to offer those seeking a collegiate education. Send for their free catalogue giving complete information.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Meal is now sold here at $1 per bushel.

—J. W. Burgess has sold the Lexington Stockyards to E. S. Gentry & Bro. for $22,500.

—The wind, which accompanied Saturday night's rain, blew a great deal of corn down, which will make it very hard to do any further work on it.

—The Bowling Green Gazette reports sales of 350 mixed sheep at $2.25 per head, a car-load of 1,000 lb. cattle at $4.35 per cwt. and 2 cars of hogs at $1.50.

—Gen. W. T. Withers' celebrated horse Almont, the great sire of trotters, died Friday. Fifty thousand dollars has been offered and refused for him.

—Benedict Spaulding add to be delivered to M. Goldsmith next week 42 head of 1,550 lb. cattle at 67c. Dr. R. D. Logan sold to same party 32 head 1,650-lb. average at 61c.

—Geo. W. Pettis has an 8 month old Jersey heifer calf, which is giving regularly half a gallon of milk a day. It is about the smallest milker in the business, as it weighs only 365 pounds.

—COUNTY COURT DAY.—A rather small crowd, a poor offering of cattle and a draggy day generally make up the record of yesterday. It was a fine day but farmers had more business at home and very properly staid there and attended to it. Capt. H. T. Bash reports about 100 scrub cattle on the market and but few sold, those bringing 4 to 4 1/2 cents. Very few buyers were on hand. No horses or mules were offered.

—The Jersey is fast becoming the popular butter animal. Col. Hoe sold Eurotzes fifteen years ago for $300. Her produce since is valued at $75,000 and $15,000 have been refused for her. It is estimated that there are now in the United States of this breed 20,000 females, of an average value of $400 each and 5,200 males of $300, aggregating nearly $10,000,000 in value, a growth of less than twenty years. Females are as held as high as $20,000 each and almost as much has been paid for a bull. This number, however, great as it seems, gives but an average of one Jersey to each 300 farmers in the country.

—Under the supervision of J. H. Hale the revenue office in the Lexington district was Saturday transferred from A. M. Swope to Charles Stoll, the new collector. The only change as far made is the appointment of James Stoll as cashier. A few other changes will be made, but all old officers will be given some position. The transfer was delayed some days till the appointment of the Solicitor of the Treasury. Mr. Hale is charmed with the way accounts have been kept under Swope, who during his term since April 16, 1877, collected nearly $10,500,000 without the discrepancy of one cent at any time.

Our readers will notice that our masthead of Arthur and Lincoln has been taken down. We are sorry for this; but, as it was compelled by the force of circumstances, no one need grieve at our mistake. Chester A. Arthur was our first choice for President. The Hon. Thomas F. Bayard is our next. In both these men we have all confidence. When at Chicago the packed benches of the country chose to down President Arthur we went down with him.—(Delaware Breakwater Light.)

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Millinery & Dress-Making!

AT MCKINNEY!

There is a full line of every variety of Millinery, and invite an inspection of the same. Mrs. Cynthia Carson, who is an expert in the business, will assist me. Goods first-class and prices very low. MRS. M. V. TALLEY, McKinney, Ky.

SPECIAL NOTICE!

FOR SALE.—A nice farm of 11 1/2 acres, located 1 1/2 miles S. of Lexington, on the Sulphur Well pike 1 mile from Sulphur Well. It is in a high state of cultivation, well fenced, excellent water. Will set the growing crop of 30 acres of corn and 5 acres of tobacco. Has a new outbuilding with 4 rooms, veranda and pantry, good eastern orchard, late new barn, 60 acres in clover. Price low. Possession given at once. HOOVER & METCALF, 203-61 Real Estate Agents, Nicholasville, Ky.

Farm at Public Auction.

—I will sell at public auction—

ON TUESDAY, JULY 15, 1884,

Beginning at 10 o'clock, at the residence, the

Old Logan's Fort Farm, in the suburbs of Stanford, Lincoln County, Ky., now containing 53 A. 3 R. and 7 Poles of Land.

The residence, outbuildings, &c. Sale positively without reserve to the highest bidder. Terms made known on day of sale.

265-21 H. G. WELCH, Agent.

W. C. BAILEY

—DEALER IN—

Dry Goods & Family Groceries

TURNERSVILLE,

The Leading House for Cheap Goods,

And believing in the old adage that "short sessions make long friends," and adopting the general rule of mercantile men of collecting twice a year, I notify all who owe me, by note or account, to call and settle at once. Thanking all for past favors and soliciting a continuance of same, I remain yours truly,

W. C. BAILEY.

264-21

POSTED!

This notice forewarns hunters, fishermen and trappers and to trespass on our lands without permission, as all such acts are liable to be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Stanford, Ky. March 17th, 1884. [Signed.]

D. McKintick, Geo. W. M. McCormack,

H. T. Bush, Wm. Carpenter,

E. Bell, C. Bishop,

H. Cobb, Levi Huddle,

Hughes Kelly, P. D. Jones,

G. L. Carter, W. C. McCormack,

T. J. Hill, M. B. Lytle,

E. Vanoy, J. W. Weatherford,

J. A. Harris, J. S. Murphy,

E. Carter, J. N. Hill,

T. J. Foster, J. H. McAlister,

M. J. White, J. D. Jones,

H. E. Marcum, J. Q. Montgomery,

M. T. Russell, Mrs. J. J. Moberly,

A. D. Newland, W. E. Anon,

S. W. Givens, H. J. Davis,

A. C. Newland.

H. C. RUPLEY.

I have received and am still receiving New Goods for Spring and Summer, comprising the best in the market, which will be gotten up in style and make second to none in city or country. Give me a trial. H. C. Rupley

BRIGHT & CURRAN,

—WHOLESALE AND RETAIL—

GROCERS!

—AND DEALERS IN—

HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE.

Farming Implem'ts, Buggies, Wagons,

—INCLUDING THE—

Mitchell, Orchard City and Winchester Wagons, McFarland and U. S. Buggies and Carriages.

—SOLE AGENTS FOR—

South-Bend and Hamilton Plows, Sole Agents for Furst & Bradley's Sulky and Turning Plows,

Riding and Walking Cultivators, Sole Agents for Evans Corn Planter and Thomas Harrow;

Also Agents for Walter A. Wood Harvesting Machines;

ALL AT BED ROCK PRICES.

WHEN IN NEED

Of any of the goods named below you should by all means buy them of

T. R. WALTON,

Corner Main and Somerset streets, where you are sure to be

TREATED FAIRLY & SQUARELY:

Flour, Bacon, Lard, Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, Syrups, Apple Vinegar, Best Coal Oil, Mackerel, Soaps, Starch, Bluing, Teas, Rope, Canned Goods, and Fancy Groceries generally; Nails, Hoes, Picks, Shovels, Forks, Rakes, Hatchets, Axles and some Shelf Hardware, Queensware, Glassware, Tinware, Ohio Glazed Stoneware, Brooms, Churns, Baskets, Tubs, some Harness and Saddles, Tobaccos and Cigars, Spices, Candies, Nuts, Fruits, &c., and all at VERY LOW PRICES. Country Produce Wanted.

